EMPLOYEE ARBITRATION AGREEMENT
READ THIS DOCUMENT THOROUGHLY-THIS AFFECTS YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

This Arbitration Agreement (hereinafter "Agreement") is made this _____ day of _____, 202___, by and between Osprey Point Restaurant Management, LLC d.b.a. The Nest Eatery (hereinafter "restaurant"), and _____ (hereinafter "Employee").

WHEREAS, Restaurant requires all Employees to arbitrate "covered claims," as said term is defined in this Agreement, on an individual basis;

WHEREAS, Employee agrees to arbitrate all "covered claims" on an individual basis as a condition of employment at the Restaurant;

WHEREAS, Restaurant agrees to allow Employee to begin employment for this Agreement; and

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises herein contained and other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

1. All terms and conditions referenced in the previous paragraphs, including but not limited to the "WHEREAS" and "THEREFORE" provisions, are incorporated herein and made a part of this Agreement.

2. The parties to this Agreement agree that all "covered claims" that Employee may have against Restaurant (or its owners, directors, officers, managers, employees, or agents) or that Restaurant may have against Employee shall be submitted exclusively to and determined exclusively by binding arbitration in West Palm Beach, FL under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 ET SEQ., regardless of the substantive law applied in the arbitration.

3. Employee agrees that she/he will pursue to binding arbitration all "covered claims" as an individual and will not lead, join, or serve as a member of a class or group of persons bringing such "covered claims." Restaurant agrees that it will pursue binding arbitration to administer all "covered claims" as a single entity and will not lead, join, or serve as a member of a class or group of entities bringing such "covered claims."

4. The parties to this Agreement agree that "covered claims" include, but are not limited to, all grievances, disputes, claims, or causes of action in any federal, state, and/or local court or agency under any applicable federal, state, and/or local law that may arise as a result of the services Employee provides at Restaurant, including but not limited to claims alleging discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or breach of any other agreement between the Restaurant and the Employee, and/or related to Employee's compensation for the services Employee performs, and specifically including any claim or cause of action alleging Employee is an employee of Restaurant, claims of employment discrimination or harassment if protected by applicable federal, state or local law, and retaliation for raising discrimination or harassment claims, failure to pay wages, bonuses or other compensation, tortious acts, wrongful, retaliatory and/or constructive discharge, breach of an express or implied contract, promissory estoppel, unjust enrichment, and violations of any other common law, federal, state, or local statute, ordinance, regulation or public policy, including, but not limited to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Acts of 1866 and 1991, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act of 1990, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, the Equal Pay Act of 1963,

Section 1981 of the Civil Rights Act, and the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act.

5. EXCLUDED CLAIMS: This Agreement does not cover, and the following claims are not subject to arbitration under this Agreement: (a) any criminal complaint or proceeding, (b) any claims covered by state unemployment insurance, state or federal disability insurance, and/or state workers' compensation benefit laws, except that claims for retaliation pursuant to these laws shall be subject to arbitration under this Agreement, (c) any claim under the National Labor Relations Act, and (d) claims for benefits under a plan that is governed by Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). Further, this Agreement also does not cover any action seeking only declaratory and/or emergency, temporary or preliminary injunctive relief (including a temporary restraining order) in a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable law, so long as that action is brought on an individual basis and not on a consolidated basis or as part of a collective or class action, regardless of whether the covered claims arose or accrued prior or subsequent to Employee entering into this Agreement.

6. The parties to this Agreement understand and fully agree that by entering into this Agreement to arbitrate they are giving up their right to have a trial by jury, and are giving up their normal rights of appeal following the rendering of a decision except as law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings.

7. The parties agree that ANY DISPUTES THAT MAY HAVE ARISEN AT ANY TIME DURING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES, even those preceding this Agreement, will be governed and settled by an impartial independent arbitrator appointed by the American Arbitration Association, South Florida_branch and the determination of the arbitrator shall be final and binding (except to the extent there exist grounds for vacation of an award under applicable arbitration statutes). The parties may agree to utilize another qualified arbitration service. The arbitration provision contained herein shall be self-executing and shall remain in full force after expiration or termination of this Agreement. In the event any party fails to appear at any properly noticed arbitration proceeding, an award may be entered against such party by default or otherwise, notwithstanding such failure to appear. The arbitrator shall give effect insofar as possible to the desire of the parties hereto that the dispute or controversy be resolved in accordance with good commercial practice and the provisions of this Agreement. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the arbitrator shall apply the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association and Title 9 of the U.S. Code.

8. All parties shall have the right to be represented by legal counsel at arbitration. The arbitrator shall permit reasonable discovery. The parties shall have the right to subpoena witnesses in order to compel their attendance at hearing and to cross-examine witnesses, and the arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be final, subject only to review pursuant to the FAA. The arbitrator shall have exclusive authority to resolve any and all disputes over the validity of any part of this agreement, and any award by the arbitrator may be entered as a judgment in any court having jurisdiction.

9. Employee understands and acknowledges that by signing this agreement he/she/he specifically waives any right to participate in any class action or collective action and if at any time Employee is deemed a member of any class created by any court in any proceeding, he/she/he will "opt out" of such class at the first opportunity, and should any third party pursue any claims on his/her behalf Employee shall waive his/her rights to any requested monetary or other recovery.

10. The parties to this Agreement understand and fully agree that they are required to bring all covered claims in one arbitration proceeding. Any covered claim not brought as one arbitration proceeding shall be waived and precluded. The arbitrator shall have the power to hear as many covered claims the Restaurant or Employee may have against each other consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

11. The parties to this Agreement agree that the arbitrator has no authority to and shall not consolidate claims of different Employees and/or employees into one proceeding, nor shall the arbitrator have the power to hear an arbitration as a class or collective action (a class or collective action involves an arbitration or lawsuit where representative members of a group who claim to share a common interest seek class or collective relief), and the parties to this Agreement shall not be allowed to submit covered claims to arbitration as a representative of or participant to a class or collective action or a claim seeking class or collective relief. If this class or collective action waiver is deemed to be unenforceable, then Restaurant and Employee agree that this Agreement is otherwise silent as to any party's ability to bring a class or collective action in arbitration.

12. The parties to this Agreement agree that nothing in this Agreement prohibits Employee from filing at any time a charge or complaint with a government agency. However, upon receipt of a right to sue letter or similar administrative determination, Employee agrees that their claims become subject to arbitration pursuant to this Agreement. Importantly, nothing in this Agreement prevents Employee from engaging in protective concerted activity and/or discussing any of the terms and conditions of her services with other Employees.

13. The parties to this Agreement agree that they cannot file a civil lawsuit in court against the other party relating to the covered claims. If a party files a lawsuit in court to resolve covered claims subject to arbitration, both agree that the court shall dismiss the lawsuit and require the claim to be resolved through arbitration as required by this Agreement.

14. If a party to this Agreement files a lawsuit in court involving claims that are, and other claims that are not subject to arbitration, pursuant to this Agreement such party shall request the court to stay litigation of the non-arbitrable claims and require that arbitration take place with respect to those claims subject to arbitration. The arbitrator's decision on the arbitrable claims, including any determinations as to disputed factual or legal issues, shall be entitled to full force and effect in any later court lawsuit on any non-arbitrable claims.

15. The parties to this Agreement agree that arbitration must be initiated in accordance with the time limits contained in the applicable Florida law's statute of limitations.

16. The parties to this Agreement agree that the arbitration hearing shall be held at a location in within twenty-five (25) miles of the Restaurant's physical location, unless the parties agree otherwise.

17. The parties to this Agreement agree that "Costs of Arbitration" include filing or administrative fees charged by the arbitration service, or hourly fees charged by the arbitrator. "Incidental costs" include such items as photocopying or the costs of producing witnesses or proof. Each party shall bear its own costs in any arbitration. The arbitrator may require the Restaurant to pay "Costs of Arbitration" or any "Incidental Costs" only if based on applicable law. This Agreement does not infringe on either party's right to consult with an attorney at any time and in such a situation the consulting party shall be responsible for all attorney fees and costs unless the arbitrator orders otherwise pursuant to applicable law.

18. Upon a finding that a party has sustained its burden of persuasion in establishing a violation of applicable law, the parties to this Agreement agree that the arbitrator shall have the same power and authority as would a court to grant any relief, including costs and attorney fees, that a court could grant, in conformance with applicable principles of common, decisional, and statutory law in the relevant jurisdiction.

19. The parties to this Agreement agree that they may settle their dispute at any time without involvement of the arbitrator.

20. If any term or provision or portion of this Agreement is declared void or unenforceable, it shall be severed and the remaining terms, provisions, or portions of this Agreement shall be enforceable.

21. This Agreement may be modified, in whole or in part, or terminated by Restaurant only after Restaurant provides at least 30 days written notice of such modification or termination to Employee, and only with respect to claims submitted under the Agreement which are received after the effective date of such modification or termination. The Agreement in effect at the time a covered claim is received by Restaurant shall govern the process by which the claim is determined.

22. The mutual obligations set forth in this agreement shall constitute a contract between restaurant and Employee but shall not change your at-will relationship or any term of any other contract or agreement that may exist between restaurant and Employee. This agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between restaurant and Employee for the resolution of covered claims.

23. Employee acknowledges that she/he received this Agreement, read this Agreement, understands this Agreement, and agrees to the terms of this Agreement.

24. This Agreement supersedes and replaces any prior arbitration agreement and/or provision in any other agreement or document between Employee and Restaurant.

DOCUMENTATION AND INCIDENT REPORTING

Please remember that reasonable steps should be taken to ensure all incidents are documented. Documentation is critical in protecting yourself and the Restaurant.

The writing of concise and accurate Incident Reports is an important part of your job. Names, addresses, dates, times and locations are all important. Note all aspects of the condition of the area and guests on incident reports.
Reports are to be factual; not statements of opinions or assessments of fault.

Whenever possible, an Incident Report should be completed for each of the following: medical transport, first aid treatment or injury, law enforcement call. Everyone involved in an incident is to make a written statement of the facts.
All reports must be delivered to the manager on duty at the end of the shift.

Always prepare reports with the understanding that the person reading is not familiar with the building, our procedures or the people involved. You should also make the assumption that the person who is using the report does not have access to the people who were there, to ask questions or seek out additional information and can only rely on the information in the report itself.

When completing Incident Reports, you will not discuss or decide fault or liability. Be complete, accurate, specific, factually clear and well organized.

Evaluate the report and clarify as needed. Is your name on it? Is it legible? Is all witness information included? Is it objective and factual?
